

Mitsubishi Corporation Logistics Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “our company”) has been working as a measure to prevent the spread of the new coronavirus infection and reduce the risk of employees and related parties from March 2, 2020. Depending on the situation, we are taking into account the attendance rate, etc. we have implemented a work-at-home of the headquarters employees. We will continue this measure for the time being until we guide you.

We apologize for any inconvenience caused to our business partners and related parties, and we ask for your continued understanding.

<Period of policy>

From August 3, 2020 for the time being

* In the future, we will extend the policy if the government policy is changed or if there is a request from the local government.